WINE LIST

WHITE WINE

FRANCE

175ml Bottle

SANCERRE, Le Grand Rochoy Blanc, Domaine Laporte

£89

Le Grand Rochoy is made exclusively from the oldest vines on a 2.5 hectare plot on the Domaine du Rochoy hillside. This is unique in the region of Sancerre for its flinty soil, which soaks up heat in the daytime and slowly re-radiates it at night. This wine is a pure expression of its origin and reveals an elegance and character quite unlike any other. It has exceptional keeping potential, of up to 10 years from vintage.

CHASSAGNE-MONTRACHET BLANC, Joseph Drouhin

£168

An exotic, beguiling white Burgundy bursting with ripe tropical fruit, including pineapple and guava. Perfectly balanced by a concentrated jet of lime-flavoured acidity and a fragrance of spicy oak.

RIESLING, Trimbach

£62

A full-bodied wine with intensity, depth, and a beautiful mineral flavour. Rich with a ripe acidity on the palate. A wine with great personality and finesse.

MERSAULD, Domaine Jean-Michel Gaunoux

£135

The wonderfully aromatic Meursault, featuring a creamy palate with hazelnut butter, yellow plum, and gingerbread. The flavour is complimented by floral notes of linden, chamomile, hawthorn, and a dollop of honey.

CHABLIS 1ER CRU, Bernard Defaix

£68

This Premier Cru is the perfect illustration of the minerality in Chablis. Gun flint and saltiness are the reflections of soil full of stones and fossils.

POUILLY-FUMÉ LES BERTHIERS, J-C Dagueneau

£83

Pouilly Fume Domaine des Berthiers Jean-Claude Dagueneau, smokey, crisp, classic Loire Valley Sauvignon. A fine example of the appellation, with rich, fruity, red apple and grapefruit flavours, backed up by smokiness and crisp acidity. The wine itself sees a short period of skin contact before being slowly cold fermented for 3-4 weeks. It is then aged on the fine lees to give the wine added richness and some of that distinctive smokiness.

POUILLY-FUISSÉ, Domaine Beranger

£86

Notes of lime, lemongrass and almonds on the nose, complemented by further nutty flavours on the palate. Round, ample and fruity.

PULIGNY-MONTRACHET LES LEVRONS, Lucien Le

£205

The deep stony soil gives the wine its intensity and elegance typical of the land around Puligny. Aromas are floral with hints of almond and hazelnut and the wine is fresh and rich in the mouth

CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE BLANC MAGIS, R&M Saouma

£188

An arresting nose of grilled nuts, sesame, citrus and blossom, and an equally impressive palate that manages to deliver power and breadth yet retain a sense of grace. Ageworthy and structured, with echoes of burgundy but very much its own sense of style, this is remarkable white Châteauneuf.

A blend of Chardonnay grapes and a small quantity of Grechetto make a wine that can age over time and represent the elegance and complexity of this unique estate. Cervaro della Sala is one of the first Italian white wines to have malolactic fermentation and ageing take place in barriques.
